AFRICA'S READINESS
for Climate Change

Ousmane Aly Pame, President of Global Ecovillage Network Africa, Founder/President REDES (Network for Ecovillage Emergence and Development in the Sahel); Lecturer Cheikh Anta Diop University

Ousmane Aly Pame, PhD, is a university professor of literature, former Mayor of the eco-town of Guede Chantier, President of GEN Africa <https://ecovillage.org/region/gen-africa/> and a regional community leader. He designs and runs international academic programs in ecovillages in Senegal. Dr Pame is founder and President of REDES (Network for Ecovillage Emergence and Development in the Sahel, <http://redes-ecovillages.org/eng/>). In partnership with national agencies, local governments, international NGOs and Universities, REDES is now supporting the transformation of traditional Senegalese villages into ecovillages. A transborder ecovillage hub consisting of 100 village communities is emerging between Senegal and Mauritania with the support of REDES. Ousmane is also a lecturer at the Department of English Studies, Cheikh Anta Diop University, Dakar, Senegal
